PEOPLE ON THE MOVE: JUSTIN COOK

PENSACOLA, Fla. (July 24, 2007) – Justin Cook has joined the West Florida Regional Planning Council (WFRPC) as an accountant.

In his new role, Cook will be responsible for WFRPC employee compensation and benefits. Prior to joining the WFRPC, Cook worked in the accounts payable department at West Florida Hospital.

Cook holds a bachelor of science in business administration with a concentration in accounting from the University of West Florida.

For more information, call the WFRPC at (850) 332-7976.

The West Florida Regional Planning Council is a not-for-profit agency that provides professional planning, coordinating and advisory services to local governments, state and federal agencies and the public in order to preserve and enhance quality of life in Northwest Florida.
